Design Story

"There is something so joyful about flower posies. They are celebratory. The flowers in these posies are from the spring & the early summer. There's Ranunculus, Narcissus & Mutabilis rose. Painted from life, some of the petals moved quickly. The posies seem to float in the air with the unfurling raffia adding to the dreamy feeling. A trellis pattern has been created by the placement of the posies in repeat. This formation & the scale will work well in most rooms, with or without pictures & wall lights adding even more prettiness."
